

Fall 2009 Seminar Series
Department of Geology and Meteorology

- Wed., Oct. 14 “Global and national energy issues: What are the options?”
Dr. John Gardon
Akzo Nobel Coatings (retired)
- Fri., Oct. 30 “Gold mineralization at the Hollinger-MacIntyre Mine”
Dr. Ed Van Hees
Department of Geology
Wayne State University
- Wed., Nov. 4 “The joys of mapping: Researching the UK fieldwork experience”
Dr. Alison Stokes
Centre for Excellence in Teaching and Learning
University of Plymouth (UK)
- Wed., Nov. 18 “Regional Climate and Biosphere-Atmosphere Interactions”
Dr. Allison Steiner
Department of Atmospheric, Oceanic, and Space Sciences
University of Michigan
- Wed., Dec. 2 “Trinidad and Tobago (West Indies) neotectonics from GPS geodesy, Quaternary geology, and tectonic geomorphology, and influence from inherited fossil structures”
Dr. John Weber
Department of Geology
Grand Valley State University

All talks are at 4 p.m. in Brooks 307.

An additional talk for faculty and administrators:

- Fri. Oct. 30, 1 pm
(Location TBA) “Recruiting Geology and Environmental Science Majors: Tricks
Learned at Wayne State University”
Dr. Ed Van Hees
Department of Geology
Wayne State University